

Nicky Decks

Nick Decker is a diverse musician from Rocky Harbour who signs his work under the stage name Nicky Decks. Having Played guitar for 18 years He knew from a young age that he wanted to pursue music as a career. He finds his inspiration in many places and has even traveled to Hollywood, California which has influenced his creative style and process. He creates art because “there's no greater feeling than when creating a music piece and people love it”. specializing in electric guitar and focusing on rock and blues. He also enjoys performing, songwriting and composition.

Nicky's art style is simple but impactful, motivated by Stevie Ray Vaughan, Jeff Beck. He has been creating art for three years and is now enrolled in Music: Performance, Business & Technology program at the College of the North Atlantic. Nicky is very much engaged in the art as he often works on originals and improvisations. He plans to work as a full-time session guitarist in the future Nicky has shown his work in his Live performances and in his college.

“When people hear music; they must experience healing and love.”

- Nicky Decks!